Day 1 8 FEBRUARY AFTERNOON

14:00-15:00 Session #2 | Ensuring the right regulatory framework for e-mobility acceleration

The demand for electrification in transport is a trend no-one can dispute any longer. The move toward EVs has been long afflicted by a chicken-and-egg problem: which needs to come first, the EVs, or the charging infrastructure?

As the European Institutions progress on legislative files crucial for the mass adoption of EVs, this panel will explore the expected consequences of such regulatory initiatives and issue recommendations for the implementation of a new e-mobility regulatory framework.

14:00-14:10 Keynote Speech: Elisabetta Ripa, Head of Global E-Mobility, Enel

14:10-14:15 Policymaker Response: Daniel Mes, Member of Cabinet of EVP on the European Green Deal, Frans Timmermans, responsible for the transport portfolio

Followed by Panel Debate moderated by: Roger Atkins, Founder - Electric Vehicles Outlook Ltd
